HI FISHERMEN . . .

They put 1955 edition into shape

"A FISHERMEN'S log for 1955," is the keynote of YOUR 1955 ZEPHYRUS. We have tried to blend together the life of Astoria high school with that of the fishing industry upon which the economy of our town is based. We have tried to liken the life of a high school FISHERMEN to that of the real life FISHERMEN who goes forth to the river and the sea to bring back provender for the eager factory. Even as the high school FISHERMAN casts his line upon the waters to seek provender for the future. For we have braved the winter and the river and the sea and come home victorious!

This is YOUR book. It is compounded of the work, the artistry, the sweat and energy of many people. If it pleases you, if it is, truly, a "FISHERMEN'S LOG," then we who have worked to create it for you have come home victorious to port. And we may say:

"Our nets are full."

THE STAFF

Astoria High life!

C O N T E N T S

The "halls of ivy" are getting a little crowded.

New prexy says "Hello"

A familiar figure in five separate colors and in five separate guises, serves to identify the various sections of YOUR 1955 ZEPHYRUS. Garbed in an academic hat at times and a typical sou'wester our little FISHERMAN is a guide for our journey through this book.

More than that he is typical in a rakish way, of all FISHERMEN, real and imagined.

Like the multi-colored facets of daily school routine our little FISHERMAN dons his festive garb and varied hues to guide us on our journey.

So, come along then as our little FISHERMAN casts his line through high school life at AHS for 1955.

Fishing fleet, foragers for food!

To the FISHING INDUSTRY, and the men and women who work to bring fish-foods to the world!

No community subsists on a single industry. But each has a major one. Our town since it began has been a place where men brought FISH from the river and the sea. The character, charm and dignity of Astoria is laced to the economic lifeline of America with the strong length of a FISHERMEN'S line.

Too, the fame of our town has been spread by AHS FISHERMEN who have gone forth into the world to cast their lines on other waters!

ZEPHYRUS STAFF

Several students completed three years of service on the yearbook staff this year. Several others have two years behind them and one more year ahead.

Sprinkled among the veterans on the staff are also newcomers to yearbook publication work. However, this year old and new staffers alike carried the burden of putting together the largest book in the history of Astoria high school.

SCHOOL BOARD

LENNART ROSS
Chairman

King Neptune's of the several schools of Astoria FISHERMEN, these directors for the city school board had growing pains to consider this year. Most of their busy regular monthly meeting agendas were given over to discussions of the proposed new high school. New to the board this year were Drs. Gist and Harvey.

Superintendent of Schools

Dreamer's paradise

SUPERINTENDENT

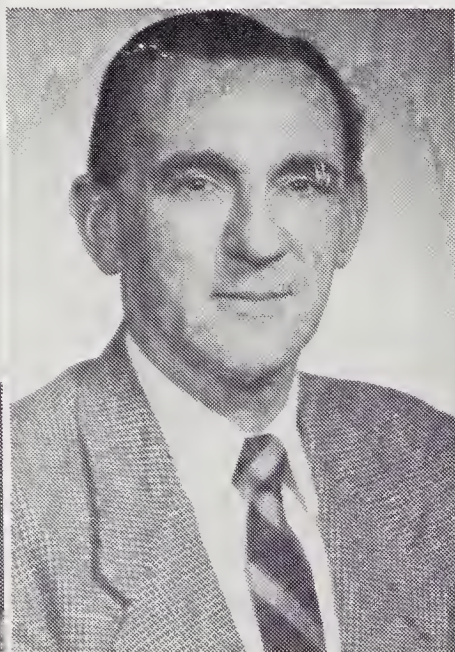

Troll-master T. A. Wells, superintendent of the city schools, completed his fifth year at the helm of the FISHERMEN'S fleet with a triumphant journey to Washington, D.C. Superintendent Wells brought the dream of a new high school closer when he secured nearly a quarter of a million dollars from the federal government toward construction of the proposed high school building. This added chore plus the many regular duties of his office made it a busy year for him.

RALPH R. LIND
Principal

In his first year as the BIG FISHERMAN at Astoria high school, Principal Ralph R. Lind introduced many new policies and features to his administration. A dispersed administrative program was one of his first acts after being named principal. He came to his new office after three years as vice-principal.

JOHN H. NELLOR
Activity Co-Ordinator

SCHOOL

Three new FISHERMEN threw their lines into the AHS administrative pool with the advent of the administration of Principal Ralph Lind this year. Dean of Boys, Activity Co-Ordinator, and Athletic Co-Ordinator were positions carved from the old duties of the vice-principal. All of the new positions carried teaching duties.

STUDENT

Top ANGLERS among AHS FISHERMEN, the student body officers led a program of expanded student participation in government activity this year.

Highlight of an active year was the anti-smoking campaign which received nation-wide attention.

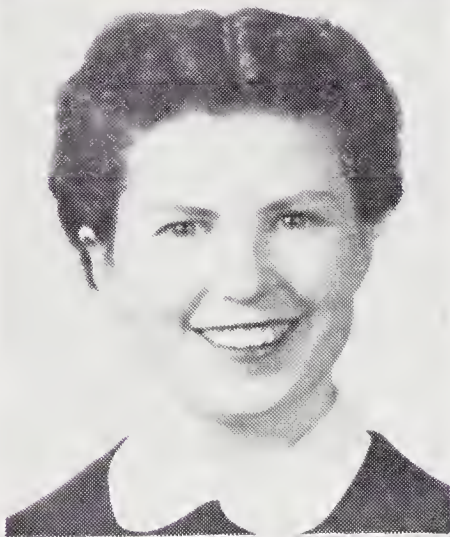

Student leaders pictured above starting at the top left and proceeding left to right are James Thompson, second vice-president, Laddy Morfitt, third vice-president,

Mary Ann Jensen, treasurer, Charlotte Anderson, secretary and Danny Williams, fourth vice-president.

FRANK BECHTOLT
First Vice-President

COUNCIL

A change in FISHING regulations—that is a constitutional revision—will change the members of the student executive staff next year.

Publications editors no longer will be elected. They will be appointed by publications committees and while losing voting status will still be on the council.

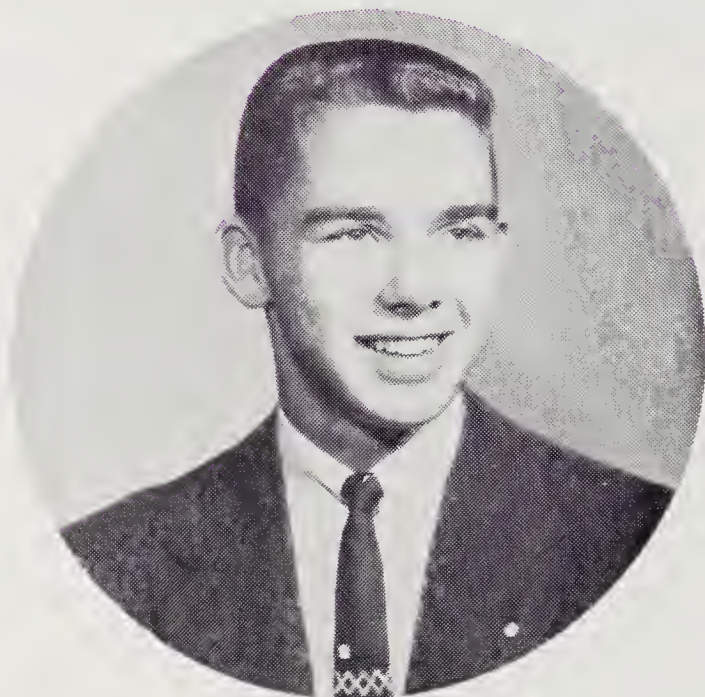

At the top are pictured Susan Sandoz, Zephyrus Editor, and Carol Holmes, Astor Post Editor, and pictured in a typical council session above are Charlotte Anderson and Mary Hautala at the table. Left to right in the first row are Sue Sandoz, Billie Ann Lempea, Nancy Johnson, Pauline Jarvinen, Carol Holmes, Gail Soderman, Mary Ann Jensen, and Mary McKenny. In the second row are Georgia Moberg, Nancy Wagner, Virginia Curtis, June Dye, Margaret Whitman, Jackie Smith, Karen Makela, Sandy Winters, Linda Thomp-

Top: Hey, Hey the gang's all here
Bottom: This, is bays' business!

BILL SPORRE
President

BOYS FEDERATION

Newest "fin" in the AHS school of FISH-ERMEN is the Boys' Federation. It was organized by Dean of Boys Carl Bourne at the urging of boys at AHS who wanted an organization to match the operations of the Girls' League, long a fixture at the high school.

Seated left to right in the above picture are Jim Ochal, Alfred Olson, Bill Sporre, Ed Hall, and Mr. Bourne. In the

CAROLE LEICHT
President

Top: The Dolly Sisters?
Bottom: Something to admire.

GIRLS LEAGUE

All girls at AHS are members of the Girls' League. It is an independent organization of girls headed by the dean of girls which is designed to provide female FISHERMEN a "place in the sun." Dances, meetings, special events and traditional school activities, for all students are conducted by this group.

Pictured above with their superiors are the members of the office staff. These girls help turn the wheels at AHS. They are, pictured from left to right, first row, Carol Pilgard, Alphild Julin, Louise Makinen, Michele Greenberg, Patsy

Now where is that form?

OFFICE STAFF

"In the swim," best typifies these little FISHERMEN who give aid and assistance to smooth functioning of the school office. Carefully screened and selected the girls each work one period a day helping with the countless jobs and errands.

Top: What was that again?
Bottom: Who said this was easy?

Pictured above are the hands who keep the student store afloat . . . the merchant Fisherman. They are, left to right, first row, Norma Brown, Tom Stokes and Dorothy Smith. In the second row left to right are Jesse Brant, Sandy Win-

Top: The old and the new.
Bottom: Chinnin' with the boss.

SANDY WINTERS
Store Manager

STUDENT STORE

A regular Dovey Jones Locker, is the student store at AHS, where FISHERMEN find all their needs for the daily school activity. The store is in its second year of operations and supplies all the basic school equipment, before and after school.

DEAN'S LTS.

Dean's customers.

The dean and her two helpers are pictured below. The two girls serve in the dean's office during her absence and answer the phone, help girls who are ill and handle the routine of the office. Pictured above with the dean are, left to right, Leona Graham, Margaret Upham, dean of girls, and Virginia Curtis. Both of the girls are sophomores.

Top: The Deon on a night out?
Bottom: More heodoches for the Deon!

Office of the dean of girls is headquarters for all matters female at AHS.

Lady FISHERMEN who have a problem, who have been absent, who are ill, or who simply want to chat, find their way to Miss Upham's friendly office for counseling and advice. They generally get the answers . . . and the help too!

Miss Upham has been dean of girls at AHS for two years. Prior to that she taught frosh English, and before that was a junior high school instructor at Lewis and Clark junior high school. She came to Astoria high school when the junior highs were abolished.

In addition she heads the Girls' League and is a Fisherette adviser.

Looking it over.

FACULTY

KINGFISHERMEN at AHS are these sea-worthy angling companions.

Thirty men and women are on the staff. Special skills of the group range from vocational education to Shakespeare.

ACTIVITIES

The active FISHERMEN was busy this season, He had some 32 special interest groups to interest him in addition to government and sports interests. New this year was the activity c o - o r d i n a t o r who helps dorganize dates and times for activities.

It goes like this---

Setting pretty.

Top: Goodbye girls!
Bottom: Money changers.

Is that hair?

The Gladiators

PEPSTERS

The art of "pepistry" was brought to a high polish by this FISHERMEN Pep and novelty group this year. They combined music, dances and yells to make games all the more enjoyable.

Hm-m-m-m! !!

The members of our "excellent" Pepster organization are pictured above, left to right. They are Marilyn Porter, Darlene Aho, Carol Wolleson, Pat Morrison, Judy Palmberg, Nancy Wagner, and Reia Clark.

"Get the lead out Joanie."

Nice and flat ,eh?

RALLY SQUAD

FISHERMEN fans had this trio of rally girls to help lead them and their teams to victory this year. Special pep assemblies, tape recorded pep messages to the team in tournament trouble were some of their tricks.

Pictured above are the three peppy members of our rally quad. They are, left to right: Judy Wogberg, Joanie Mat thews and Billie Ann Lempea.

BOB GINN
President

IRL CLUB

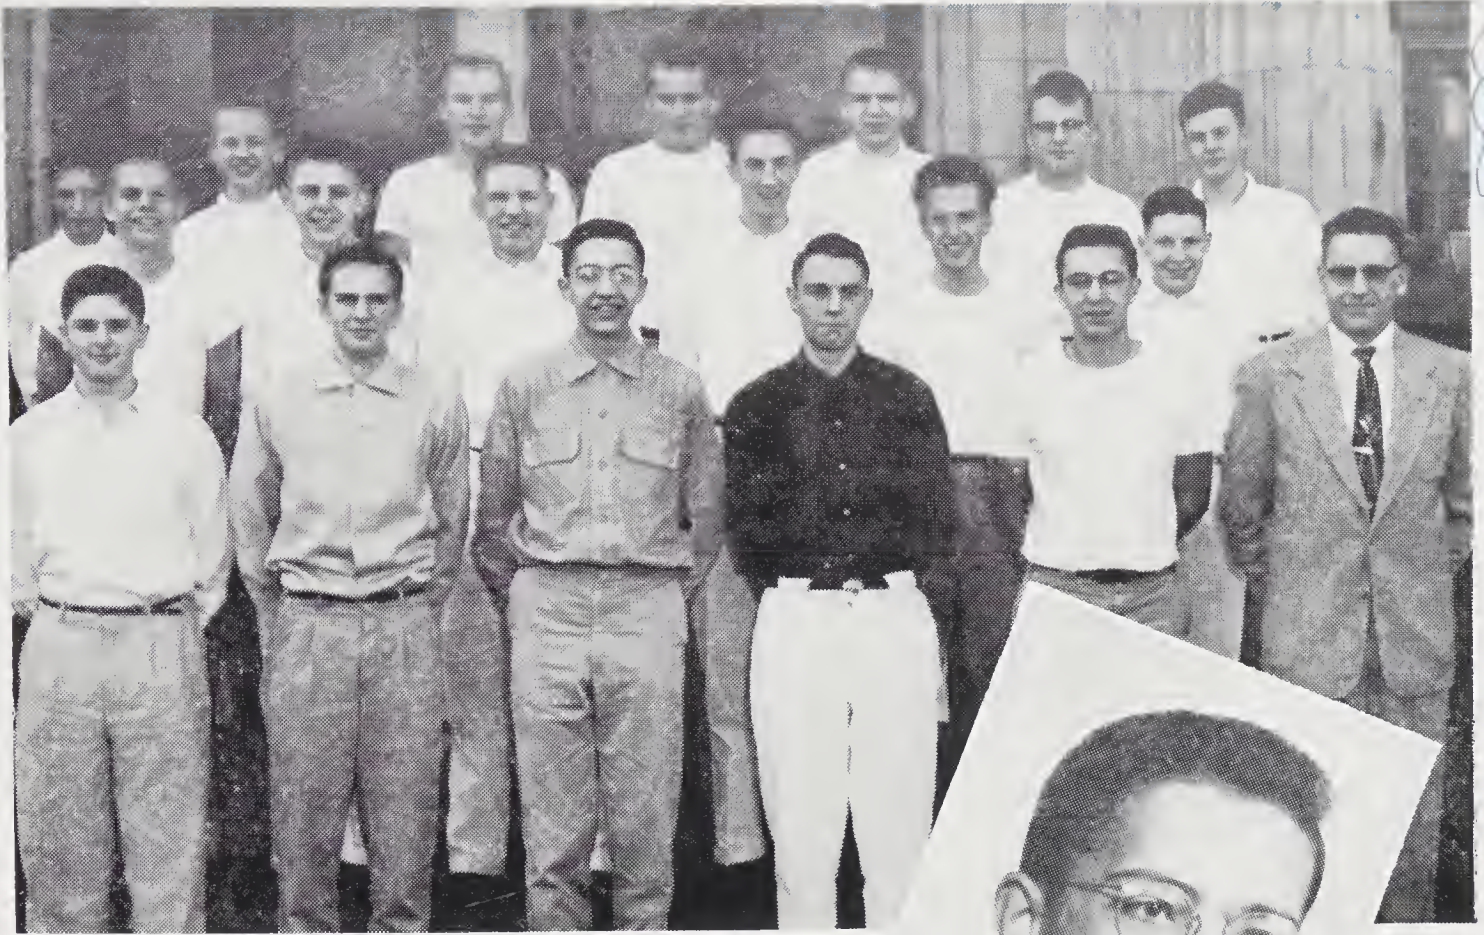

"International FISH," best characterizes this group. All juniors are members of the league. They have as their province areas of international trouble. A special trip to Eugene and a statewide conference, plus constant international study is the lot of this hard-working bond. Miss Maude Crouter is the adviser.

BILL TAFT
President

Members of the Hi-Y pictured above from left to right front row are, Mason Morriset, Gene McIntyre, Bill Taft, Bob Ginn, Ed Hall, Mr. Glick. Second row, Bob Clement, Jack Landwehr, Terry Trout, Jack Zeller, Dennis McNish, Jim Whitman. Third row, Ronnie Brook, Danny Williams, Marvin Hautala, Bruce Mathre, Frank Bechtolt, Ted Zatterlow, Mike Foster.

HI-Y

Elements of the "good life" are embodied in this group of FISHERMEN. They capped another successful year with one of their number, Bob Ginn, winning a trip to Europe. An annual dance, church visits and regular meetings are the usual far for Hi-Y'ers. This year two former clubs merged into one. Stan Glick is adviser.

Hi-Yers and friends!

I suppose you could have done it better?

South of the border.

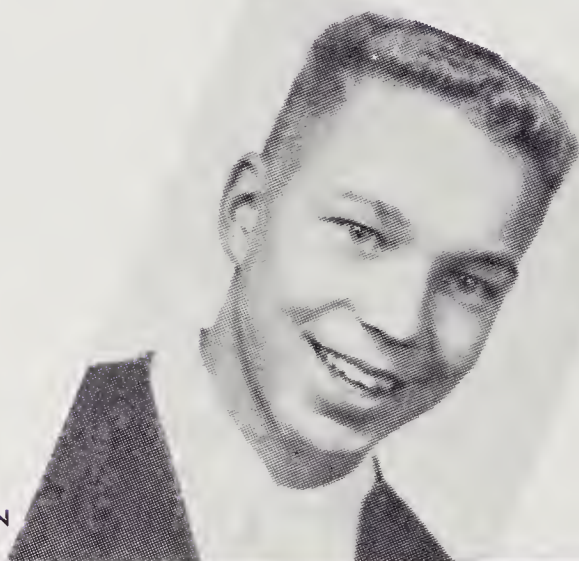

Down Mexico way.

SPANISH CLUB

"You don't have to know the language," says an old song but these Latin American inclined FISHERMEN surely will. The club is composed of Spanish class members and they spend the year celebrating all traditional holidays as is done "south of the border." Miss Anne Bergman, adviser, completes her last year at AHS this year.

DARRELL ISAACSON
President

The members of this years Spanish Club are left to right: first row; Sheryl Hoaglund, Laurie Nephew, Nancy Forrest, Mary Jo Siddall, Marlene Jondall, Pat Taylor, Suzanna Ransom, Mary Susan Lowe, Karen Eagen, and Joanne Steele; second row; Bob Courser, Gordon Westerlund, Bob Neimo-nen, Judie Smethurst, Bill Andrus, Dorothy Verschueren, Arnold Curtis, and Saradell Stanglund. Seated at the table are the officers of the club. They are Program Chairman—Georgia Moberg, President—Darrell Isaacson, and Secretary—Sidney Sullivan.

FRENCH CLUB

The romance of Paris . . . is sometimes hard work language-wise for this group of FISHERMEN learners. But they too take the language, the world, the manners, and the interests of our neighbors across the sea as their special study area. They also celebrate all national holidays and hold special programs along the yearly school calendar.

ureen Loop, Charlotte Andersen, and Carol Wolleson.

Latin Club members studying the life and language of the ancient Romans were first row, Judy Hein, Sheryl Baker, and Millicent Lamb, second row, James Mantell, Margaret Whitman, Mariel Fahlstrom, Mary Kaitera, Carol Haines, Nanette Shatto, Diane Falleur, Joe Damiano; third row, Dave Jarvinen, Coleen Shephard, Sandy Winters, Claudia Attig, Ed Hall, Gayle Miner, Diana Longtain, Neil Morfitt and fourth row, Tom Robinson, Gary Manners, Tom Wells and Wally Nelson.

SHERYL BAKER
President

LATIN CLUB

Junior Classical League is a better name for this gang of language learners. Several classes filled with Latiners are part of the regular high school curriculum. All of them are welcomed as members of the league which further studies Roman life. These Roman FISHERMEN are led by Anne Bergman, adviser, who handles all language classes at AHS. They have a busy schedule of events.

Ancient Romans? ?

What's in there?

Members of the National Honor Society pictured from left to right are, first row, Carol Holmes, Joan Matthews, Virginia Patson, Mary Ann Jensen, Gail Ostrom, and Joyce Wilson. Second row, Sue Sandoz, Carol Wolleson, Gail S d rman, Sue Andrus, Trudy Schenk, Sheryl Baker. Third row, Deanna Sehorn, Georgia Moberg, Margaret Whitman, Darlene Aho, Michelle Greenberg, Virginia Curtis, Arlene Neimi. Fourth row, Fred Coyle, Bob Ginn, Bob Westenberg, Richard Elliot, Clayton Erickson, and Miss Friedrich, adviser.

CLAYTON ERICKSON
President

HONOR SOCIETY

The title "SCHOLARLY FISHERMEN" best fits these students who are the active and honor members of the student body. Membership in the group is by election by the faculty and is based on grades, activities and leadership qualities. It is a national organization and the yearly installation of new members is one of the school highlights. Anna Marie Freidrich is adviser.

JUNIOR HONOR

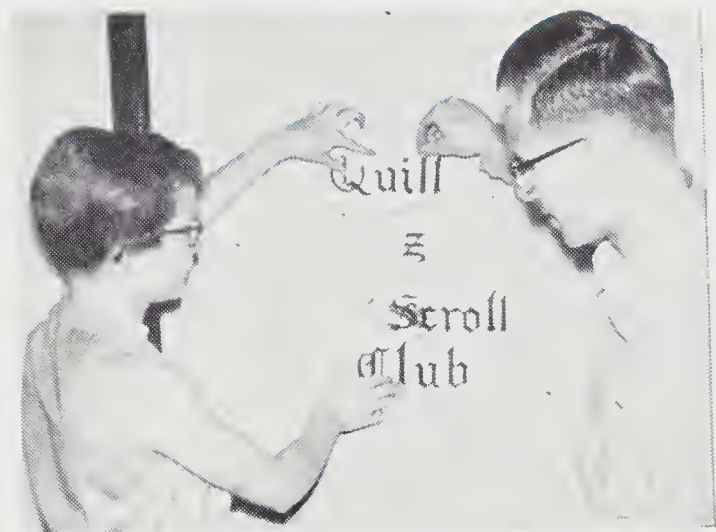

Apprentice FISHERMEN to the National Honor society these "understudy" school leaders earn membership in the junior group for leadership qualities similar to those of their elders. Membership is for underclassmen in this organization and the adviser is Anna Marie Freidrich. The junior society members must earn their way into the older group. An impressive installation caps the year.

BOB CANESSA
President

Those students selected to become members of this years National Junior Honor Society are left to right: first row; Kathy Astala, Laddie Morfitt, Karen Johnson, Linda Thompson, Judy Hein, Bob Canessa, and Gail Hauke; second row; Jack'e Smith, Diane Falleur, Nanette Shatto, Evelyn Lewis, Eleanor Olson, Mary Kaitera, and Keith Korpela; third row;

ASTOR POST

The rough grind of producing a regular newspaper, complete with accurate, factual reporting and pictures, even, is the rugged life for these hardworking FISHERMEN. Top state and national honors have come the way of the Astor Post down through the years and this year's editions are no exception. Edited by Carol Holmes, and under the advisership of Miss Fern Curry, the AP has forged ahead with its legend of excellence this year.

An ex-expert listens to an expert.

"Now we will meet at . . . !!"

MISS FERN CURRY
Adviser

ASTOR POST CUBS

Learning the ropes to the journalistic FISHERMEN'S ladder is the job assigned to members of this traditional AHS organization. They understudy the regular AP staff and learn the tasks that will be assigned to them in years to come. Many of them do actual reporting jobs for the school newspaper and most go on to later positions on the AP staff. Miss Curry is adviser.

Reportorial understudies!

Gone, but not forgotten.

"Naw, where is it?"

LIBRARY STAFF

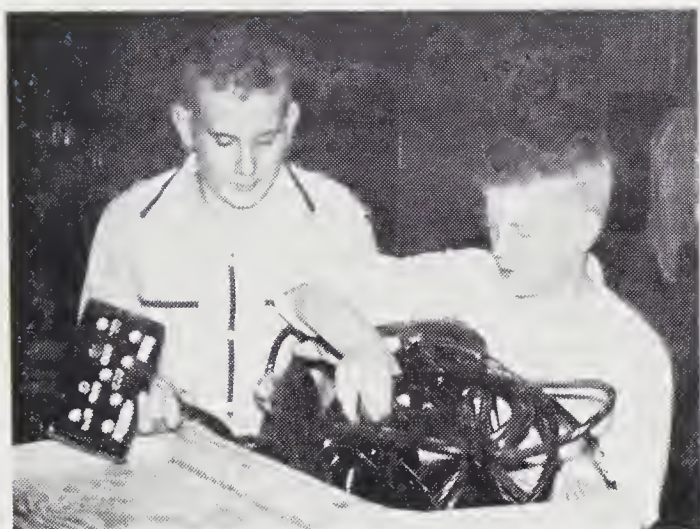

FISHERMEN with a bookish trend are the seventy some members of the AHS library staff. Under the direction of city school library supervisor Miss Marjorie Halderman, this crew of anglers supervise, operate and regulate the high school library which is reputed to be one of the better ones in the state.

SUE ANDRUS

Members of the hard working library staff are, in the first row, left to right: Peggy Matson, Maralee Olsen, Corliss Jumisko, Arlene Sarampa, Fairy Vaughan, Carol Wolleson, Mary Ann Jensen, Sue Andrus, Shirley Julian, Joyce Wilson, Suzanne Englund, and Lisa Mellin. The second row contains Sheryl Baker, Jo Hansen, Marilyn Porter, Gladys Oja, Joyce Johnson, Darlene Aho, Patsy Stangland, Louise Makinen, Miki Greenberg, Judy Olsen, Georgia Moberg, JoAnn Koskela, Billie Hess, Mary Blum, and Tillie Koljonen. Those in the third row are Joanie Blomquist, Jackie Smith, Millie

HI-KNIGHTS

Every school of fish has its laborers and the AHS school of FISHERMEN is no exception. The Hi Knights are just what the name implies. The gang which labors when the rest of the school pleasures. They are the boys who make sure the games are properly policed, that the school patrons find their seats and they prepare the gyms and stadiums for athletic contests.

Members of the FHA seated above are from left to right, Tillie Koljonen, Phyllis Peschl, Martha Smith, Margaret Whitman, Judy Hreha, Judy Prechel and Patti Humphreys. Standing in the second row from left to right are Priscilla Lowe, Carol Nielson, Ellen Sumida, Carol Lengel, Mary Huddleston, Judy Kiminki, Margie DeBlois, Mary Polisky, and Diane Piippo; third row, Mrs. Thorndike, Sheryl Hoagland, Kathleen Lupro, Jackie Smith, Donna Olson, Evelyn Bock and Sue Andrus.

President

F. H. A.

Some lucky FISHERMEN will net these experts of the home and hearth for wives. They are the ones who learn the skills of cooking, sewing and mending which pay off in the households of Astoria. Members of the Future Homemakers of America pursue a course of interest around the essential tasks of family life. Trips, dinners, banquets and kitchen techniques are their forte. Mrs. Elizabeth Thorndike is adviser.

"Don't just stand there, do something!"

Loded Yet?

Those seated in the picture are Aina Mae Schenk, Glen Morrison and Betty Mae Johnson. Other members of the Camera Club are Jim Lopakka, Beverly Planting, Judy McGhee, Mary Jane Kamm, Ronnie Poole and Fred Oltmanns in the front row. The second row contains Bob Westerberg, Dorothy Verschueren, Don Storhow, Richard Stoner, Roger Weld, Leland Cowan, Hugh Wedekind and Eugene Kverndal.

GLEN MORRISON
President

CAMERA CLUB

In the artistry of the eye the—artificial one of the camera—is where these FISHERMEN photographers excell. In addition to learning the techniques of photography from lens to darkroom they carry the burden of keeping eager Zephyrus and Astor Post editors fully equipped with snaps and portraits of life at AHS. Still they manage to merge fun with work and excursions and picnics dot their agenda.

TRI-HI-Y

Opposite numbers to the boys Hi-Y organization this group of AHS FISHERMEN pursue similar activities and interests and hold joint activities with the Hi-Y itself. Under the advisership of Mrs. Mary Nyland the club spent a busy year, capped by a dinner-installation and joint sessions with the Hi-Y.

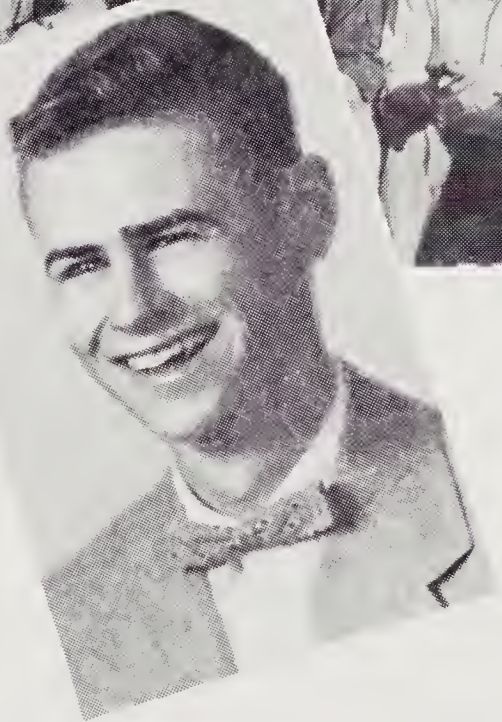

DEANNA SEHORN
President

Tri-Hi Y members pictured above from left to right are Carol Wilson, Dorothy Peterson, Joanne Carlson, Deanna Sehorn, Doris Wong, Joanne Peschl, and Judy Steele. Second row from left to right are Judy Smethurst, Beverly Planting, Liisa Mellin, Lois Anderson, Vicki Poteet, Sheryl Hodgson, Carol Haines and Phyllis Peschl; third row, Ernesteen Petersen, Faye Haikka, Marianne Hauke, Denise Sehorn, Karen Iverson, Gail Hauke, Aina Mae Schenk, and Denise Nygaard. fourth row, Mrs. Nyland, Judy Hein, Coleen Shepard, Sandra Ranta, Laurie Nephew, Thanna Hill, Sally Peterson, and Sheryl Hoaglund.

MICHAEL LEIGH
President

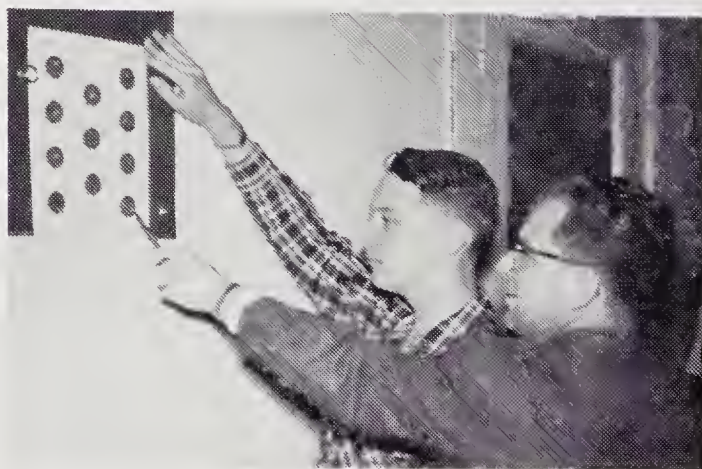

Members of the Rod and Gun Club in the front row from left to right are as follows, Marvin Hautala, Gary Hendrickson, Mike Leigh, Bob Caspell, Wally Sarpala, John Attig. Second row, Bill Carlson, Ed Salisbury, Warren Paaso, Rodney Wilson, Don Storhow. Third row, Larry Hreha, Dick Stoner, Bob Courser, Dave Taylor, Arnold Curtis, Tom Chan, Ken Thompson, Henry Geissel. Fourth row, Dale Brown, Chuck Wilson, Ron Lum, Marlvn Maki, Hugh Brown, Mr. Bourne, Advisor, Ken Olson, Fred Oltman, and Watson Roth.

ROD AND GUN

Real FISHERMEN, and hunters as well, are the members of the Rod and Gun club, one of the newest of the school organizations. Organized last year by the then vice-principal, Ralph Lind, the club continued this year under the leadership of Carl Bourne, dean of boys. An annual Trout fishing derby, rifle practice, shooting matches, fishing and hunting cutings are all part of the yearly cctivity of the club. Membership is open to all students.

J.V. RALLY

Even struggling junior varsity FISHERMEN at AHS have attractive and enthusiastic yell leaders to spur them to the pinnacle of prominence sports-wise. The band of noise-makers pictured here attended all junior varsity games and led the cheering for the fledgling sportsmen. In addition the girls were active in pep sessions at the high school and helped the varsity group stir the "Pep bowl" to a boil.

SPORTS

Fighting FISHERMEN in all sports had a great year at AHS. A new co-ordinator to help with the paper work in the athletic program was an innovation. It was a rugged but victorious year.

"I'll get 'em, I'll get 'em" "Not around here, boy!"

Special sidestep
Wet Night?

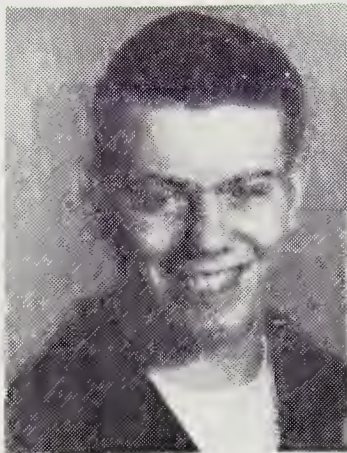

ROY M. THOMPSON

The man who keeps the "fight" in the nickname that Astoria teams have blazed across the state for years is head football coach Roy M. Thompson. He is in his third year at the helm at AHS. What his teams have lacked in material they have made up for in spirit.

FOOTBALL

PHIL SHOOP

Rugged and ready are words of common praise for veteran Phil Shoop. His steady line play was a factor that kept the Finns in more than one ball game. He graduates.

HENRY HILLIARD

"Big Henry" was a defensive standout for the FISH-ERMEN this year. In early season action he was a potent member of the offense in the backfield.

LEBANON 6—ASTORIA 0

In an evenly matched contest which saw Thompson's Fishermen dominate the play, Lebanon barely managed to eke out victory in the first outing of the season for either team. It was a crisp, cool night when the 1954 version of Astoria's football squad hit the turf for initial action. They were proud members of that tradition of fine Fishermen teams that came before them.

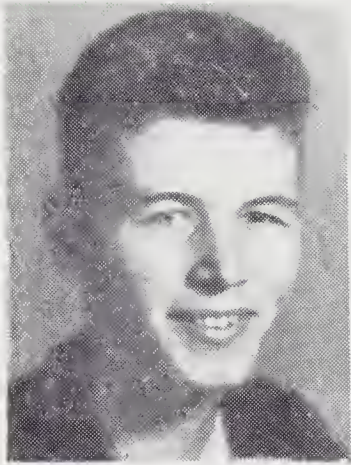

LONGVIEW 40—ASTORIA 6

"Closer than the score indicates," was the comment as the Finns absorbed their second setback in a row in the second home game of the year.

MILWAUKIE 13—ASTORIA 12

One of the highly ranked teams of the state nearly met defeat in the Fishermen's first away-from-home jaunt of the season.

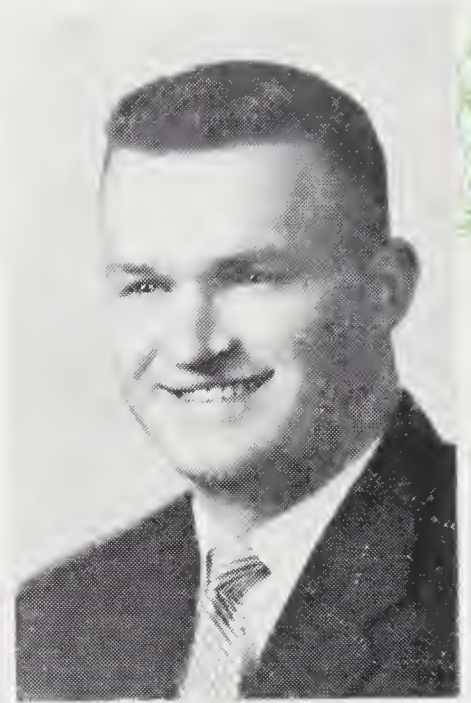

JIM CARR

Top bench strength is the rating "Jim" earned in his two seasons on the squad. He is a senior who's cleated shoes will be hard to fill.

TOMMY HILLE

Another reserve stalwart whose graduation will leave a gap in FISHERMEN strength. "Tammy" could be counted on to fill the defensive leaks.

NORMAN WELCH

"On to Clatskanie," is the cry now adopted by assistant coach Norm Welch. He assumes the head coaching position there next fall. Replacing him will be a hard job. "Norm" has been an inspiration to Astoria high school gridgers for three years.

CENTRAL 25—ASTORIA 6

The second journey of the year into foreign waters was a disastrous one for Fishermen victory hopes. The Thompson coached crew went into the contest with injuries plaguing them and the injuries took their toll in the effectiveness of the team's offense.

GRESHAM 6—ASTORIA 0

Gresham's vaunted Gophers, pound heavy and power-laden nearly came-a-cropper in the third invasion of the Fishermen's homeland for '54. They scored in the final seconds to cheat the locals of victory. It was the Fishermen's game all the way.

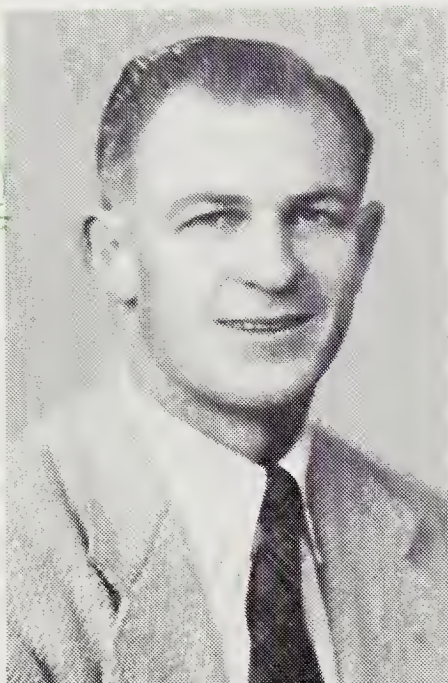

Been makin' mudpies?

WARD PALDANIUS

"Ward" is a valuable asset to FISHERMEN Football fortunes even though he loves that "oval" ball and is head basketball coach at AHS. He handles the backs and has been at his chores for five years. Spotting duties are usually his at game time.

RALPH EATON

Every team has a "fireball" and Eaton was surely it for the FISHERMEN in 1954. He is a senior who was the inspirational leader for the team. He will be hard to replace.

DAVE URELL

A youngster who earned himself a starting berth in his first year on the varsity, Urell should prove a tough customer in his two remaining seasons. He was a standout in the line.

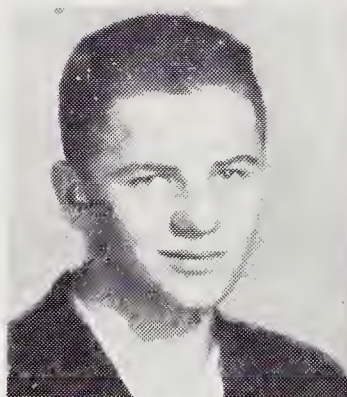

ASTORIA 12 TILLAMOOK 0

GARY JOHNSON

No team travels far without a good manager and Gary Johnson filled the bill admirably for the Fishermen this season. His was the lonely job of keeping lockers clean, having all equipment on hand and ministering to the minor ills that constantly beset hard working football players. He did everything, including keeping soggy footballs dry during "unseasonal" winter rains on football nights.

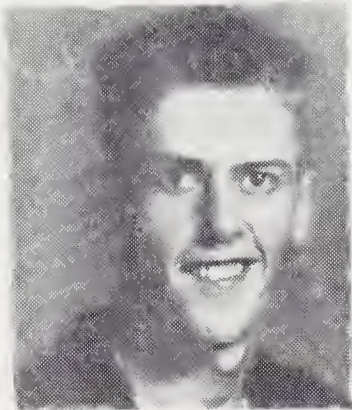

This quartet of line and backfield team members will be back for another year as Fishermen foes. They were standouts in their positions and their promise is "great." Topside, left to right, are Larry Battles and Jim Fleck whose backfield performances were memorable for Fishermen fans. On the bottom rack, left to right, are Rolland Gregg and Keith Korpela. They served yeoman service in the line and promise greater thrills and victories for the Fishermen in the years ahead.

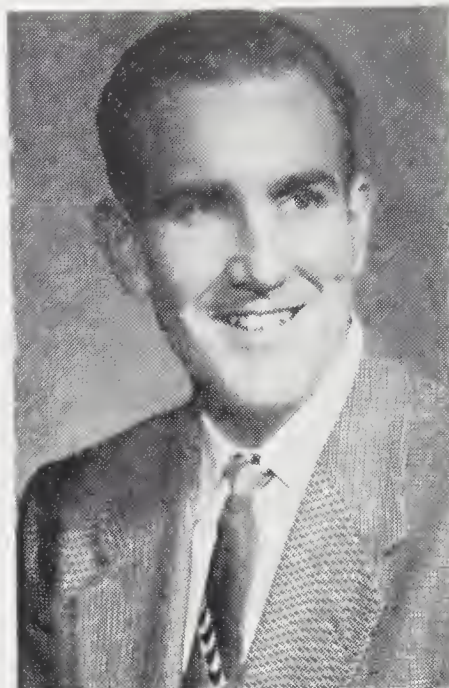

DAVE McCOURY

"Defensive Dave," was a name well-earned by this footballer who has another year of service on the FISHERMEN eleven. At half-back few tackles were missed by Dave. He figures large in next year's plans.

JIM THOMPSON

"Nat around this end," was his motto and he generally kept it as he paced many FISHERMEN defensive stands. Tall Jimmy has another year to mar the offensive thrusts of AHS faes.

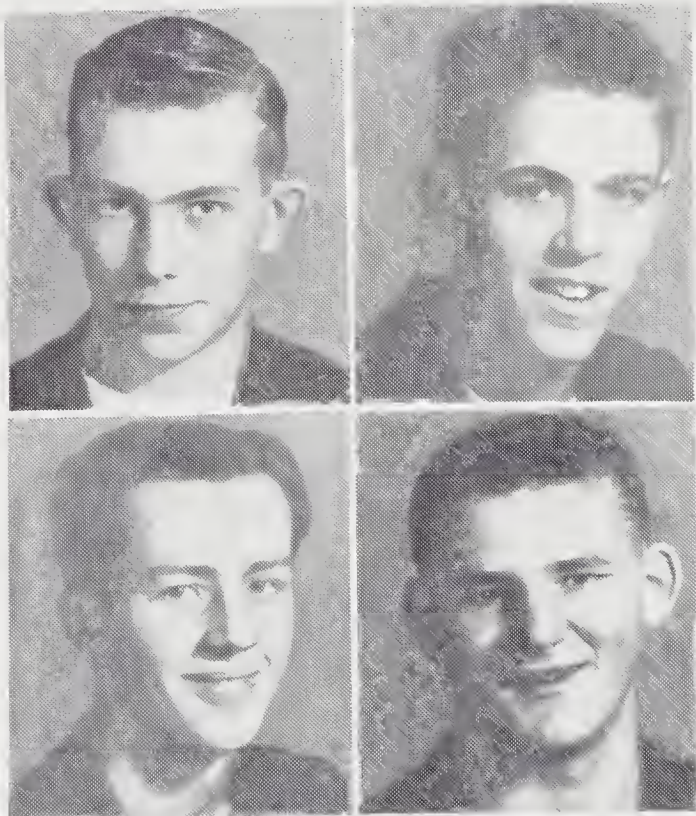

WALT ODEN

Frash caach Walt Oden will be gone next season but his influence will long affect FISHERMEN faatball fortunes. Many of his charges after a year af service were ready to step into varsity spats as saphamores. He goes to California for next year.

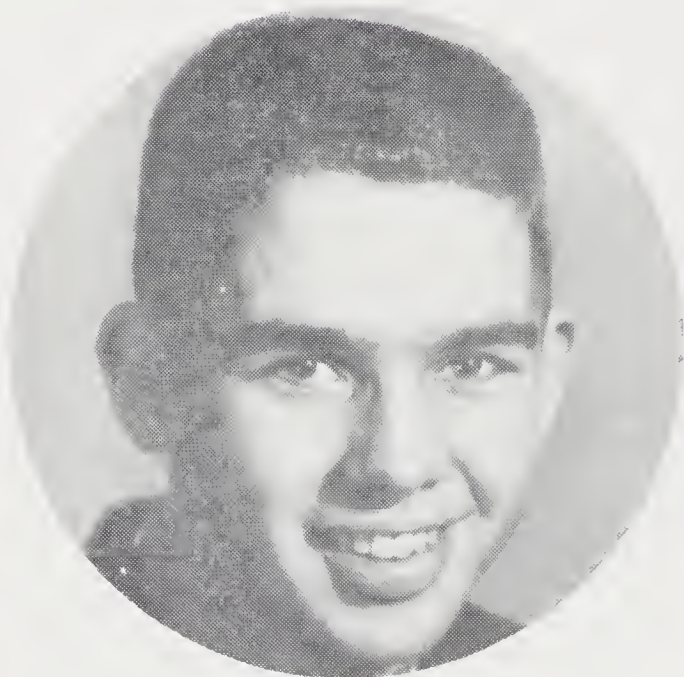

PARKROSE 26—ASTORIA 6

Disaster marred the third foray of the Fishermen in out-of-town stadiums. The Brones of Parkrose were loaded for bear when the Finns journeyed to their field and they capitalized on an injury-hampered squad of Fishermen and buck-fever to send the locals home on the short end of the score.

Another quartet of returners for next year are pictured above. They are on top, left to right, Alfred Olson and Laddy Morfitt. Bottom row is left to right, Jon Tucker and Tom Wells.

BILL SPORRE

Injuries sidelined Sporre for a part of the season but he started out the year as key man in the split T offense of the Fishermen. Later in the year he and sophomore Laddy Morfitt alternated at the critical quarterback slot and confused their opponents with left and right handed pegs from the roll out on either side of the line. Sporre is a senior and will be missed on the roster of next years' fighting Fishermen.

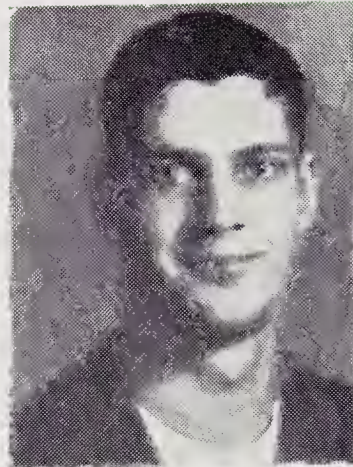

JON ENGLUND

"Big Jon," was a coaches dream both on offense and defense in his tackle spot. He combined maneuverability with speed to perform as a standaut in every game of the year. He will be much missed next year, but not by FISHERMEN faes.

LARRY OHLER

Early season promise of this halfbock was marred by injury, but his future is bright for FISHERMEN fans. He returns for more grid action next season.

DICK REES

He proved his promise as o frosh and soph standout this year as a junior in out-standing service ot end. He will be one of the bulwarks in Coach Thompson's plans for 1955.

FOOTBALL

WALLY NELSON

Only a sophomore this football natural has two years of letter-winning performance behind him. He has been both a backfield and a line stalwart. He has two years left.

MIKE SIMMONS

From line to backfield tells the story of this sophomore footballer. He came into back. He has another two his own as a split-T half-years to live up to his promise as a stellar performer.

DICK PEKKALA

A real Finn this FISHERMEN standout was the rock on which Coach Roy M. Thompson anchored his team. "Who will replace Dick?" is a common question and no one has the answer. As a senior at center he proved his rugged durability and his aggressiveness.

Toting the pigskin for the Fingerlings this year were: (l to r) first row: Jim McCallister, Jerry Webster, Jim Bradbury, Allen Saxberg, Sandy Fredrickson, Mike Killion, Jack Himes, Dick Saffley and Terry Folland. Second row: Melvin Maki, James Gaupo, Chuck Wilson, Arnold Curtis, Mike Warner,

FROSH FOOTBALL

Three victories in five starts is the record notched by the fledgling FISHERMEN in football action for 1954. The Oden-led eleven dropped two tests in a rugged schedule. The future varsity stalwarts played both at home and away and had rugged practices 5-nights a week to sharpen their turf skills. Coach Walt Oden leaves AHS this year to take a coaching and teaching position in California.

BASKETBALL

One of the best years in the history of Fighting FISHERMEN hardcourt squads was notched by the Paldanius-coached quintet this season. This high-scoring senior was all over the court in FISHERMEN games again this year. He is one of those who are irreplaceable.

DICK PEKKALA

Always aggressive and always on the boards, Dick was an inspiration and a leader in his senior year. He was always a scoring threat.

PAUL OSTERLUND

The play-maker, Paul's floor leadership was decisive in many FISHERMEN wins for 1954-55. He will be missed next year.

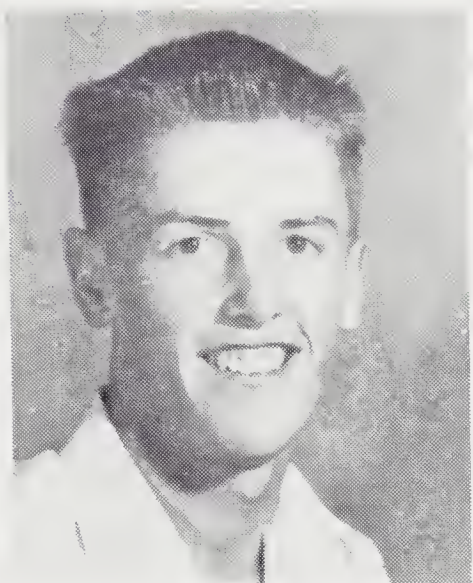

JOHN VOSIKA

"Little John," the crowd-pleasing, aggressive, driving basketball exponent was sixth wheel on the squad this year. He graduates.

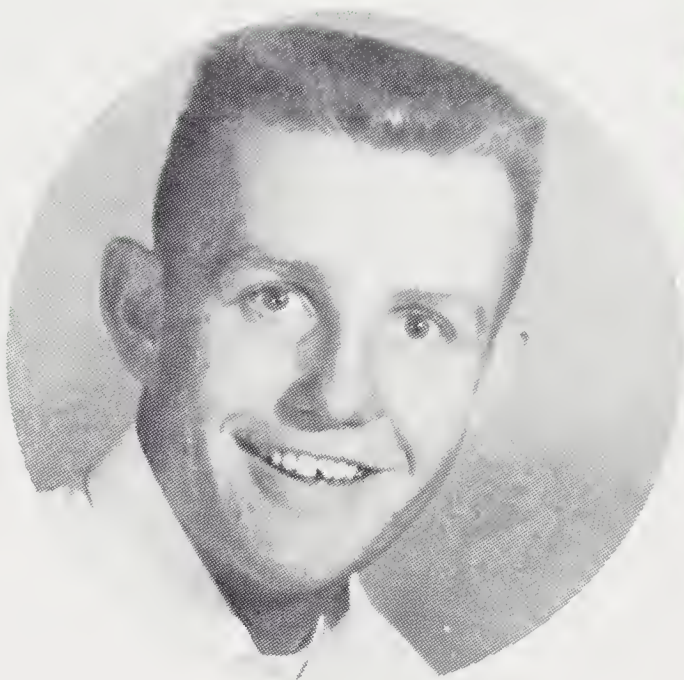

"Aw, come on, stop!"

CAPERS

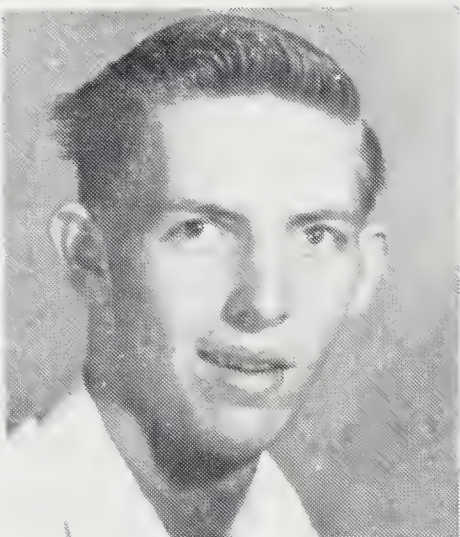

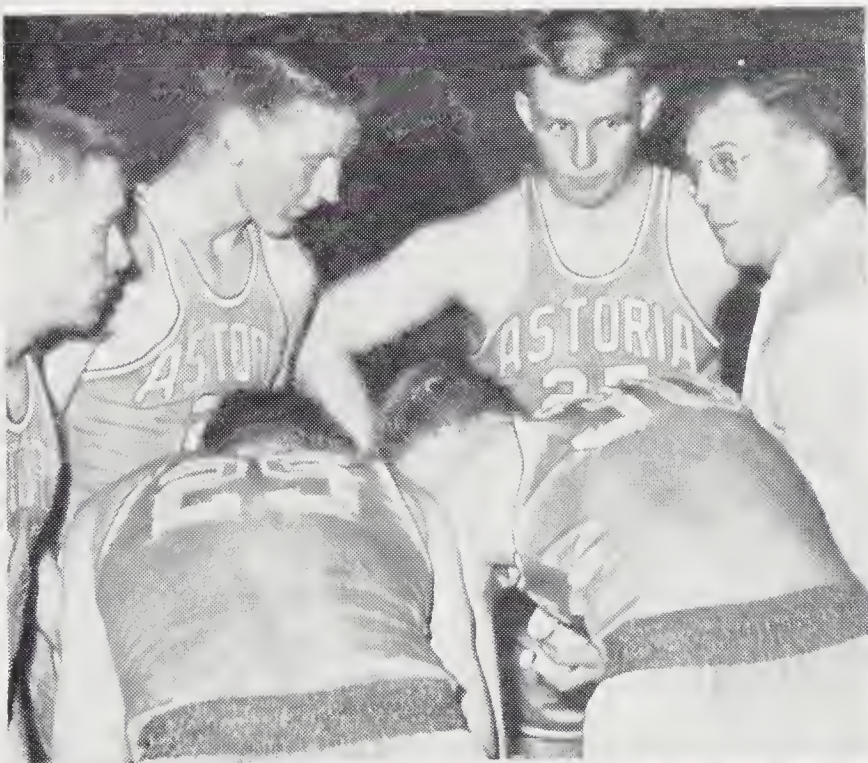

JIM THOMPSON

Jimmy's aggressive floor play and basket eye make him a lad to watch in his final varsity season next year.

JON ENGLUND

If a team ever had an outstanding performer Big Jan was it for the FISHERMEN this year. He paced the scoring column. His lass is great.

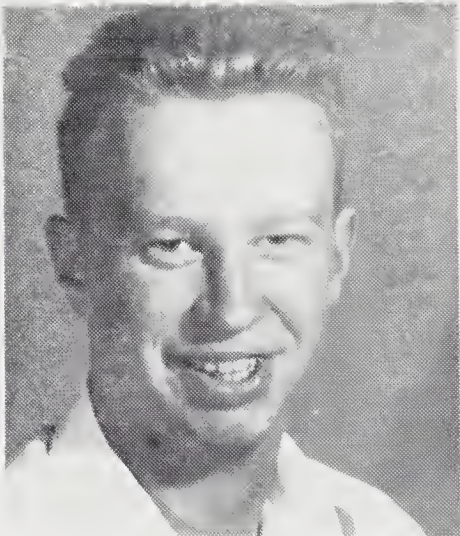

HENRY HILLIARD

Henry was a reliable replacement for weary varsity performers throughout the season. Tall and rugged he will be missed.

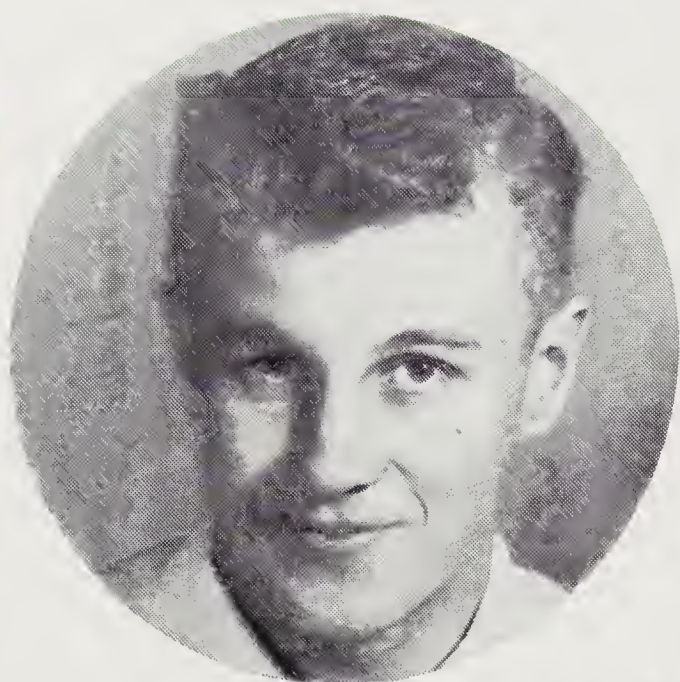

Big Jan scores.

Bottom: It's nat that bad is it Jan?

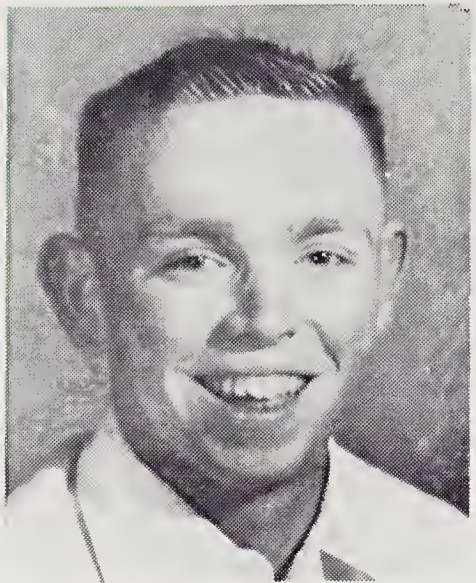

GARY MANNERS

This sophamare sky-scraper shows great potential for future FISHERMEN fives. His 6 foot 3 inch height will not be unwelcome.

WALLY NELSON

Another sophomore who has two potentially great years ahead. Wally got some seasoning this year and bodes to be a rugged contender in the season ahead.

BOB CANESSA

At the guard post Bob got the experience he should need for his final two years of varsity action. He looms large in future hardcourt plans.

BASKETEERS

DON JOHNSON

The man with the gear is an important one to athletic teams and no exception was Don Johnson this season. He kept the team supplied and judging from the record they must have been happy.

ROY V. THOMPSON

JV coaching chores are Roy Thompson's in addition to his head football coaching duties. He guided his charges to a 14 and 8 won and loss record for the year.

Rain bars many practice sessions but doesn't seem to dampen the spirit of the Welch-coached crew of hardballers. Despite a "damp" spring the boys took the field for most of their games. Welch switches to football, with a baseball minor, at Clatskanie next season.

Strictly musclemen.

Health and physical education are not overlooked in the crowded curriculum at AHS. The physical Fishermen find plenty of opportunity for daily practice at athletic skills. The boys alternate the gymnasium with the girls but somehow manage to find some space for physical activity. Team and individual sports are part of the program.

INTRAMURAL

The Astoria Athletic Association sponsored a full league of high school basketball teams in cooperation with local merchants for the intramural program after hours at AHS. Non-varsity players, boys who worked or lacked the time and talent for varsity competition took part in the program. Some 200 participated.

The runner-ups in intramural competition were, left to right in the first row, Bob Caspell, Bob Gohl, and Ralph Eaton, In the back row are Jerry Sommerset, coach, Charles Lindstrom and Bob Ginn.

Intramural winners in basketball for 1955 are pictured above, left to right. In the first row are David Smith, Sandy Fredrickson, Gary Walker and Jim Lopakka. In the second

SR.-FACULTY TILT

99

The annual Faculty-Senior basket-brawl game was the usual fiasco. The aging mentors resorted to subterfuge and trickery to post a narrow one-point win over the battling seniors. Seniors took solace in the happy thought that it is always tough to beat the referee too!

FROSH RALLY

Putting the "pep" into Frosh games and learning skills for future use as varsity yell-ers was the job of this crew of young cheer leaders. They performed the same duties as their advanced fellows and helped out in regular games during both football and bas-ketball seasons. The girls are elected by the class.

A CLUB

All varsity letter-winners are inducted into this select AHS organization. They took on new responsibilities this year in policing the school and in general issue rules and regulations for the wearing of letters by winners and restricting non-winners from wearing them. Both Coach Ward Paldanius and Roy M. Thompson are advisers for the group.

GIRLS' SPORTS

The whole field of recreation, physical education and team and individual sports is sponsored through the girls' physical education classes at AHS. Physical fitness as well as physical conditioning are stressed in the courses. Two teachers, Mrs. Esther Jensen and Elma Hewitt, handle the whole program

Badminton, table tennis, tumbling, volleyball, basketball, deck tennis and just plain calisthenics are presented in all physical education classes. Girls usually use the track on some boys' physical education days because of the crowded and inadequate facilities. Despite the handicaps they seem to have fun.

JUNIOR PROM

One of the biggest moments of the school year is always the Junior Prom. This year was no exception. The hard-working juniors made the usually drab gymnasium a pleasant place to be and served up a gaily bedecked dream-world for prom revellers. Miss Maude Crouter and Mrs. Evelyn Egan were advisers for the annual dance this year.

SENIOR BALL

Another top highlight of the school year was the senior ball. The upperclassmen outdid themselves this year with a lavish evening of fun for mid-winter dancers. Guests from out-of-town, and college returnees made the event even more fun for high-schoolers. All members of the class worked on the dance. Walter Cden was adviser for the event.

HIGHLIGHTS

Outside of regular school activity but still important to high schoolers these extra events were highlights of the school year. All of them are annual affairs which lend fun to the heavily laden social calendar. They are registered with bold letters in the FISHERMEN's Log for 1954-55.

Captured in typical school and at-home candid is this typical AHS female FISHERMAN. Chosen for typical qualities the above scenes catch the events of a day that might be that of anyone who roamed the hall of AHS in 1954-55.

YOU did this in 1954-55. No, not YOU by name or class, but YOU participated in the events portrayed in picture here. YOU had classes and study halls, and cheers for victory and tears for those that were otherwise. YOU danced and laughed and worked and through it all learned and grew and came to be bigger and better FISHERMEN.

From dawn to dusk on a typical day FISHERMEN were busy in 1954-55 as these scenes from the life of a typical classmate portray. Work and fun combined to make it busy year as the above scenes disclose. Busy far all who make the FISHERMEN'S real click.

Write large in the FISHERMEN'S log that brave were the knights of the fishing clan in 1954-55. They, whether uniformed or mufti-clad went forth to make proud the colors of their school. Here, captured in ink, are some moments in the life of a typical classmate. Do YOU remember similar days . . . similar events?

A LAST WORD

This 1955 Zephyrus is compounded of the sincere and conscientious efforts of many persons not directly connected with AHS. Some of them are pictured below in typical scenes that came to be a part of the daily life of yearbook staff members. All of these people deserve your thanks . . . all of them are BUDGETEERS.

Don Church shows how the "cuts" were made.
